

A close-up photograph of a white marble sculpture. The central focus is a baby lying in a woman's arms. The baby's face is serene, with closed eyes and a slight smile. The woman's hands are visible, gently cradling the baby's head and body. The lighting is soft, highlighting the smooth texture of the marble. In the top right corner, there is a solid red rectangular block. Below it, the name 'IVAN MEŠTROVIĆ' is written in white, uppercase letters. Further down and to the right, the phrase 'ZAHVALIMO NJOJ ...' is written in white, uppercase letters.
